Chicago Board of Education President, Mary Richardson-Lowry to be honored as “Humanitarian of the Year” by the Abraham Lincoln Centre

WHAT: Annual Humanitarian Of The Year Dinner

WHEN: Friday, October 22, 2010

WHO: Abraham Lincoln Centre

WHERE: Fairmont Hotel, 200 N. Columbus Dr., Chicago, IL

HOW: Dinner & Award Ceremony with Live and Silent Auctions

WHY: Since 1959, the Abraham Lincoln Centre's Annual Humanitarian Award dinner has honored individuals and organizations that impact the lives of children.

The Abraham Lincoln Centre (ALC) has served Chicago's south side communities for 105 years, providing much needed social services to more than 7,000 children and families a year at 13 program sites. A few of ALC's flagship programs include helping at-risk children and youth gain the education and skills necessary to succeed in life, supportive housing and social services for people with disabilities, and support programs such as life skills initiatives for seniors and families.
